will be no bout between Stanley Ketchel, and the negro pugilist, Sam Langford, at the Fairmont Athletic club here Friday night.

Correspondence between Police Commissioner Baker and the district attorney was made public tonight. In reply to the commissioner's query whether the police may legally stop the bout Mr. Jerome says:

"The Fairmont Athletic club is a duly incorporated club, but when sparring exhibitions are given, certain portions of the building are reserved for members and their guests from which they may observe such exhibitions; and no member or guest of a member is admitted to such reserved portions of the building and the such previously paid to the club a fee for the privilege of such admission.

The material at Lagoon, while it is on about an average with the material which has shown up for early practice each year, is very poor. Out of the ten men at the resort only two have played ball on the University squad in previous years. The other men, with the exception of Kratz, have only had high school training. The men who are at the resort are Jesse Walker, Captain "Tillie" Olsen, Dave Olsen, Rex Shores, R. Korns, M. Love, C. Kratz, C. Christensen, E. Jenser and D. Gardner

After the men reach the city they will be a large aggregation from Mille Anderson, defeated dailed number led by Fred McLeod of Midlothian, 32 point to 28 at the Skokie club today. The match was played under the Nassan system of scoring.

Unlike golf, where one year a veteran is the best man on either team by long odds.

Unlike golf, where one year a veteran is champion and the next year an 18-year-old boy wins the title, tennis is a game where the best man wins and luck counts but little. Larned's victory this phase of the game, and despite claims that he had "gone back" and was in poor form through injuries, his masterly game carried him through to certain and decisive victory.

Tennis players throughout the country regret that the champion will not make one of the American team to make the trip to Australia in an attempt to win the coming Monday, when it is expected that there will be a large aggregation from the enlisted students out in suits.
